ART AND CULTURE

to read with the whole family

Editorial Mediterrània was founded in 1980 in Barcelona and since then we offer proposals to enjoy art, nature and culture as a family.

The team of people who make up Editorial Mediterrània has a vocation to make the publishing house close and competitive, to be distinguished by the quality of its books and products and to be recognized in the cultural and educational sector.

We like to share our knowledge with people from other cultures and countries, so we publish books in more than ten different languages.

Reading makes us grow; will you join us?
